Township Register

49 YEARS OLD — FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1937 — NO. 42

AROUND the TOWNSHIP

This issue of the Township Register is the last to be published under the management of the undersigned.

Beginning with next week's issue this publication will be managed by Mr. J. Boyce Smith, who for eight years, published the Kingsburg Recorder at Kingsburg, Calif., near Fresno. Mr. Smith knows the newspaper business and is enthusiastic about the opportunities offered by Washington township.

During the two years we have lived in the township, we have been happy in the friendships we have made and in the kindly treatment given us. Only the fact that larger opportunities offer elsewhere causes us to take this step.

We wish to thank everyone for many kindnesses and we hope to return often to renew acquaintanceships.

Election of Paul Dougherty as head of the local farm center is not only a well-deserved honor for Paul but a credit to the center. There is no way in which the local farmers could better have shown their intelligence.

The Rev. Francis McCarthy called our attention to a fact bearing on the weather in San Francisco and the vicinity which has its special interest at this time. The Rev. Father writes:

"October is San Francisco's pleasantest month, when the fogs and trade-winds have left her attendance, after finishing their appointed task of air-conditioning her summer days. Some October days however are marred with early rains. When San Francisco was planning her now famous Portola celebration which was to run a full week, the committee in charge was particularly concerned with the problem of the early rains. They consulted the State weather Bureau and learned that the week most immune from rain according to the reading of the charts back to the earliest weather records was the week of October 17. Set for that week, the Portola celebration unrivalled in the history of San Francisco fiestas for success, was carried out amidst perfect weather. This anniversary week of the Portola celebration is a happy proof that 1937 is living up to the fine reputation of her sister years in presenting bright days and clear nights to the Bay region during the week of the 17th of October."

D. M. Carvo had the shock of his life the other day.

George Rose called him up, asked him to come over for a few minutes. Carvo looked around his place. Nobody in sight, stage not due for another 40 minutes. So he locked up his front door and trotted over to Rose's.

Twenty minutes later, he came back to work. Still no one clamoring to get in.

He unlocked the door, walked into the place and there saw a woman, pale and shaking, standing in the middle of his floor.

"What th---! How did you get in here?" he asked.

"I was in the phone booth when you left", she said.

Carvo has been worried ever since about what people will think of him, a bachelor, locking strange women up in his ice cream parlor.

He did not get the lady's name.

Niles Group Organizes New Rotary Club Unit At Wednesday Meeting

NILES—Steps for the orpanization of a Rotary club in Niles were taken Wednesday by a proup of 16 business and professional men who met at the Florence Restaurant with Al Fraber and Ralph Anderson of the Hayward Rotary Club. This action unites Niles with more than 4,300 cities all over the world where Rotary clubs have come ot play a leading part in the provress and development of the life of the community.

The new club is sponsored by the members of the Rotary Club of Hayward. They have felt for some time that Niles should be represented in the world-wide organization, visitors stated. Rotary clubs in nearby cities are those at Hayward, San Jose, San Leandro Oakland, Berkeley and Palo Alto. One of the distinctive features of the Rotary Club is that its members are welcomed at every other Rotary club in the world, and the constant interchange of these visits between business men of different cities tends to break down any feeling of provincialism and rivalry, to the advantage of all cities.

Those present at the meeting on Wednesday when it was decided to form a Rotary club in Niles and seek admission to membership in Rotary International, the central organization of which all clubs are members, were R. C. Attinger, E. D. Bristow, George Bonde, Dr. Edgar C. Dawson, R. A. Blacow, E. F. Glassbrook, John Kimber, Dr. T. C. Wilson, C. W. Kraft, Dr. E. C. Grau, Edward Enos, George Mays, George Smith, Jack Vieux, F. V. Jones and Clark Griffin.

The new group will meet each Thursday, time and place to be announced later. It is expected that officers will be elected next Thursday. Attinger was named secretary pro-tem.

As soon as the new club has been admitted to membership in the international organization by vote of the international board of directors, its charter as a Rotary Club will be delivered by Hayward and Allison Ware of Chico, governor of District No. 105. Delegations from other nearby Rotary Clubs are expected.

The motto of Rotary is "Service Above Self, He Profits Most who Serves Best". The four ways in which Rotary seeks service arise out of the objects of Rotary which are:

"To encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and in particular, to encourage and foster,

"1-The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

"2-High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying by each Rotarian of his occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

"3-The application of hte ideal of service by every Rotarian to his personal, business and community life;

"4-The advancement of international understanding, good will, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional men united in the ideal of service."

Dougherty Heads Local Farm Bureau Center

NILES—Paul Dougherty, agricultural instructor of the Washington Union High School, was elected president of the Washington-Eden Farm Center at its annual dinner held Tuesday night at the I. O. O. F. Building. He succeeds A. Neil MacArthur of Irvington. Other officers chosen are Frank Cardoza of Centerville, vice president; and Gerald Fry of Mt. Eden, secretary.

The speaker of the evening was S. G. Rubinow, director of publicity for the California Farm Bureau Federation. In a rapid-fire, straight-from-the-shoulder manner, he emphasized the necessity of the farmers' getting together and fighting for their rights. As a former newspaper man, his observations had led him to suspect, he stated that there was a "nigger in the woodpile" somewhere between the producer and the consumer and that the problem of this day was to discover a method of delivering the farmer's produce to the consumer without having to increase the value of the consumer's dollar. He referred to a survey made at Washington recently by the Federal Trades Commission on market conditions of decidious fruits and vegetables and stated that every effort should be made to have this report publicized. He made the assertion that there was some "honest to God racketeering going on in the fruit and vegetable business. In other words that there was something fundamentally rotten in Denmark"!

He stated that at present there were 21,143 members in the national Farm Bureau Federation and that by the end of the fiscal year on Oct. 31, this number was expected to reach 23,000. He compared with this number, however, 10,000,000 enrolled in labor organizations and urged farmers to enroll in commensurate numbers.

Other speakers were County President Walter Block of Liver-

200 Residents of Masonic Home Expect To Receive State Old Age Pensions

By James H. Heath

MASONIC HOME, DECOTO—Oct. 18. The action of the grand lodge in adopting the recommendation of the board of trustees of the two masonic homes that the board be instructed to permit recipients of Old Age pensions under the provisions of the California Old Age Security Act. No. 1 to remain in the Decoto Home is generally commended by residents of the home eligible of availing themselves of the requirements of the act.

In their report to the grand grand lodge the trustees state that the act gives persons residing in homes for the aged pensions up to $35.00 monthly under certain conditions and that under the present population of 352, probably 200 can qualify for such pensions. They also remark that a number of the residents of the Decoto Home have already contacted the State Department of Social and Welfare which Department has in turn discussed with the board the granting of pensions to certain residents of the Decoto Home.

In their report, as in full adopted by the grand lodge, the trustees remark: "We believe the Decoto Home, regardless of where the mony comes from to pay its expenses, is rendering a priceless service to its residents. It gives them a haven of security, a congenial atmosphere with the company of others of their own age and outlook on life. While there are those who will prefer to remain outside the home if they can receive $35.00 a month from the state, there are many others to whom the privilege of ending their days within its gates will mean safety, freedom from worry, the enjoyment of congenial companionship, and assurance that when sickness comes they will have the best of medilal care and nursing.

"Thirty-five dollars a month at best will provide but indifferent food and poor housing and will give no opportunity to lay up a reserve for medicine or to meet other expenses of illness. If the recipient of old age pensions should elect to remain in the home, paying such charges as the trustees may designate, he not only gets substantial diet, good housing, but has his medical needs and hospitalization provided for, besides many other advantages."

Since the convening of the grand lodge the board of masonic homes trustees has reorganized with practically the same set-up, with Chas. M. Wollenburg as president. Charles Albert Adams, term expired, was drafted for further service. By virtue of his new office, William B. Ogden of Los Angeles, advanced from Grand Orator to Junior Grand Warden and therefore in line for advancement to Grand Master, becomes a member of the board ex-officio, while Grand Secretary John Whicher continues a member ex-officio and secretary of the board.

F. B. Hartman is in the saddle again for his 29th year as superintendent of the Decoto Home. So far as learned no changes are contemplated in the various officials serving under his general direction. These officers include Mrs. Minnie Richardson, Matron, Miss Payne, head nurse in the hospital department, Miss Hayden, dietician and Dr. E. A. Ormsby, physician.

The 28th annual report of F. B. Hartman, Supt., shows that on Aug. 30, 1937, there were 201 men in Decoto home, average age 74.61; women, 151, average 73.39. During the year 37 men were admitted to the home and 16 women. Departed other than by death, five people, of which four were men. Deaths during the year 25 men, average age 78.24; women, 25 average age, 79.16. Membership, Aug. 1937, 352, 201 men, 151 women. Average 74 years. An average of 45 men and women had been cared for in the hospital department. Twenty-six married couples were included in the above summary.

WASHINGTON WINS 18 TO 12

By Tom Estudillo

Bud "Bum" Mellow ran 50 yards to a touchdown after receiving a 35 yard pass from Kakimoto to give Washington a 18-12 victory over Los Gatos last Friday at the latter's field.

The Los Gatos Tigers opened the scoring in the first period as Schmidt, fullback for Los Gatos went over from the two yard line after two runs.

The Tigers then scored again late in the second quarter after receiving a blocked punt behind the goal line.

Washington then received the ball late in the first half, then with lighting speed a quick pass from 35 yards over left end from Kakimoto to Mellow who rambled 50 yards unmolested to a touchdown scoring the first 6 points for the Huskers.

At the beginning of the second half Los Gatos kicked off to Washington who received on the Tigers 35 yard line, which started a grand march down the field to tie the score 12-12.

In the final period of the game, Rivers passed to Costa who ran the ball 20 yards to be stopped on their own 10 yard line.

In the final period of the game, Rivers passed to Costa who ran the ball 20 yards to be stopped on their own 10 yard line.

It was then that the whole Washington line and back field wrapped themselves around Rivers and went over for a third touchdown in time to hear the final gun, leaving the score Washington 18, Los Gatos 12.

Today Washington meets its biggest and hardest team, Mt. View with the kick-off at 3 p. m. If Washington wins this game, it looks like a clear track to another championship team.

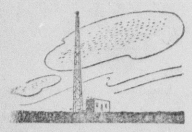
HIGH FIDELITY RADIO



Broadcasting Stations have spent fortunes to improve equipment

Is your radio three years old or more? Does it bring all the fine things that are on the air today just as if "you're there in person"? Make this test. Hear your favorite program on a 1938 High Fidelity Radio. Note the difference.

Hear the Better Programs now on the Air at their BEST

Here's why. Your local broadcasting stations have spent fortunes to send out programs with wider range and depth of tone. Voice and music go forth as living sound. But most of this is lost if YOUR radio receiving set does not bring in these programs as clear and beautiful as when they left the studio.

Accurate Precision Tuning for Perfect Living Tone

VISITORS SHOCKED TO FIND HOST LYING DEAD

WARM SPRINGS—When relatives from San Francisco visited the Mallard Gun Club at Warm Springs to give a surprise party to Lloyd Holden, 36, keeper, they were themselves surprised to find Death had preceded them as an uninvited guest. Holden was found lying on the floor, dead presumably from a heart attack.

The radio was still going. Earlier in the afternoon James Hardy, Southern Pacific employee at Drawbridge had called to deliver a package. The radio was broadcasting a football game and no one answered his knock.

It is understood Holden had been refused enlistment in the army because of heart weakness and had been given the position of caretaker at the club because he could not do more strenuous work. Surviving are brothers and sisters in San Francisco, Charles and Mary Holden and Marcella Flower.

MOTHERS TO BE GUESTS OF GIRLS OF NEWARK CAMPFIRE

NEWARK—Mothers of Campfire Girls and members of the Women's Improvement Club, sponsoring group, will be guests of the girls at a dinner to be held Tuesday night, Nov. 9. Mrs. Sam Scott and Mrs. Ray Trescott, leaders, are assisting the girls with arrangements.

The last meeting of the Improvement club was held at the home of Mrs. Lena Bertolotti with 20 present. Refreshments were served following the business meeting.

Mrs. C. E. Anderson was hostess at a recent meeting of the Ladies' Guild of the Centerville Presbyterian church.

NILES P.-T. A. TO AID PATROL IN ATTENDING GAMES

NILES—The Niles Parent-Teachers Association voted to contribute not more than $5 per trip to send the Junior Traffic Patrol to three football games this season. Highway Patrolman George Barron was present and spoke to the mothers at their meeting Tuesday regarding work of the local patrol. He stated the boys here had the hardest assignment of any in the territory since they had to work so far away from school. He complimented the boys highly on the excellence of their performance.

Officer Barron stated the boys would march in the Armistice Day parade in Hayward on Nov. 11 and suggested that the P.-T. A. buy a banner for the patrol. This matter was delayed for further consideration.

After the business meeting, refreshments were served in the cafeteria with Mrs. Dick Attinger, Mrs. R. Calhoun and Mrs. Ray DeVine as hostesses.

NATIVE SONS PUT ON DEGREE WORK

CENTERVILLE— Degree work for the Native Sons of Hayward was put on by the Centerville team this past week. On the team here are Judge Allen G. Norris, Tom Silva, Jr., Tom Silva, Sr., F. T. Dusterberry, M. P. Mathiesen, Leonard Lucio, E. M. Stevenson and E. J. Pimentel.

Prize-winners were announced as follows, all winners receiving cash prizes: Three-legged race for ladies, Barbara Twohey and Lois Page of Livermore, Francis Fernandez and Mercy Rodriguez of Oakland; ladies' sack race, Mrs. Grace McComber of Livermore and Hazel Machado of Pleasanton; older girls' race, Ruddella Kramer of San Leandro and Margaret McComber of Livemore; slipper-kicking, Margaret Upham of Hayward and Bernice Correa of San Lorenzo; small boys' race, Joe Jardine of Mission San Jose; Eugene Kramer of San Leandro; small girls' race, Ramona Regan of Livermore and LaVerne Madeiros of Alvarado; older boys' race, Franklin Mueller and Jack Coyat of Livermore; men's weight-throwing, L. B. Mason of Livermore and Ed Meunier of Oakland; young men's three-legged race, Horace Wentworth of Oakland and Harry McNeil, Ed Jockers and Nick Hennesy of San Francisco.

Margaret Upham of Hayward kicked her slipper approximately 60 feet down the race track. Some of the less fortunate kickers ran a fair chance of knocking out spectators when the brogans backfired and went over the heads of the crowds standing behind the line of scrimmage.

In spite of the weather which didn't seem to be able to make up its mind during the morning, the afternoon was typical of sunny Southern Alameda County and dancing lasted until dark when the general consensus of opinion seemed to be that a good time was had by all with only one year to wait for the next picnic.

AN EMERGENCY EXISTS

That there probably is an emergency fund somewhere to take care of highway construction emergencies and that the condition of the Niles canyon bridges constitute such an emergency is the contention of George Roeding, Jr., in a letter printed in the Brickbat column on this page.

Until Mr. Roeding mentioned it, this angle of the bridge situation has not been considered. Local civic bodies would do well to inquire of Earl Lee Kelly on this point at once.

Kelly, in recent letters to civic groups hereabouts, contended that reconstruction of the presnet bridges, or construction of new bridges on present sites, would be uneconomical and should wait until an entire new grade can be surveyed and put in through the canyon.

This would be logical if there were any prospect of immediate action.

But Mr. Kelly has further declared that there is insufficient money on hand now for such action.

He has not said when the money will be available.

Nor has he said when the work would start, once the money is available.

In the light of this attitude it is apparent that Mr. Kelly does not consider the canyon bridge situation an emergency. This community should lose no time in convincing him of the fact.

The supreme court acted rightly in refusing to consider the action against Associate Justice Black.

There is nothing to do about Black now except to give him a chance to show his character by his actions. Black is not worthy of such a chance. Better men than he have received less consideration for past missteps; but there is no other course open.

It is quite likely that Black may not influence any court decisions in the immediate future and there is danger in this fact. The country should not let itself be lulled, because the time will come when Black, now a relatively young justice, will be the senior member of the bench.

MOON MAGIC

The harvest moon is supposed to have some sort of magic. One evening recently, when the harvest moon was still rather young there was one of those magical nights.

The air was clear, very clear, yet, withal it was also very soft and sweet. The light of the moon transformed the earth. The mountain, the ravine, the ugly bare land, the trees all were different. There was an almost unearthly radiance, and it made one feel as though they had escaped into a new and better world, a world full of serenity and beauty.

There was also a gentle little breeze which now and then just ruffled the calm of the trees, and thereby added to the enchantment of the scene. It almost seemed as though it were fairy music which came and went with the rustle of the leaves, so strong was this impression that one was almost inclined to look among those leaves to see if there were not little elfs playing for joy at the beauty of it all.

There was that absolute feeling of peace, of beauty, and of joy. It was as though God had laid His healing hand on the scene and transformed it for the healing of men's souls, for there was healing in it. One wanted to drink so deeply of the serenity of it all that one could stand the selfish, cold, brutal everyday world and be unafraid.

The only mar upon this scene was, as usual, the work of man. On the white ribbon of highway which cut across one's vision darted the man-made fire flies. One could not help wondering if any of them saw the beauty of the night through which they were dashing so madly, and if they saw it at all, did it give to them any of its messages of peace and good will?

BRICKBATS

Dear Sir:

I fully agree with your recent editorial, "Money in Wrong Place". The canyon bridges are a disgrace to the County and to the State. I understand that they are not safe for trucks, and they certainly are very dangerous crossings for automobiles. I am glad to see that you and the Chambers of Commerce are starting the "ball rolling" in endeavoring to get new bridges as quickly as possible.

Did Mr. Kelly give you any idea when the money would be available for this purpose? It seems to me there should be emergency funds reserved to take care of these things, and I think these bridges are emergencies that must be taken care of in the very near future. We are certainly entitled to a definite answer as to when this can be done, and steps should be taken to see that this work is taken care of at the very earliest date.

If there is any way I can assist you in this regard, please call upon me.

Sincerely yours,
George C. Roeding, Jr.
